

Miguel Ángel Muñoz announces a leading role in a European movie

DANIELLA REYES

@dani_reyesp

Miguel Ángel Muñoz, who currently plays the part of José María Navajas and Joaquín Navarro on the TV series Infames, acknowledged that just as BASTA! stated a few days ago, he received job offers for working in Televisa, after his participation in Epigmenio Ibarra's production comes to an end.

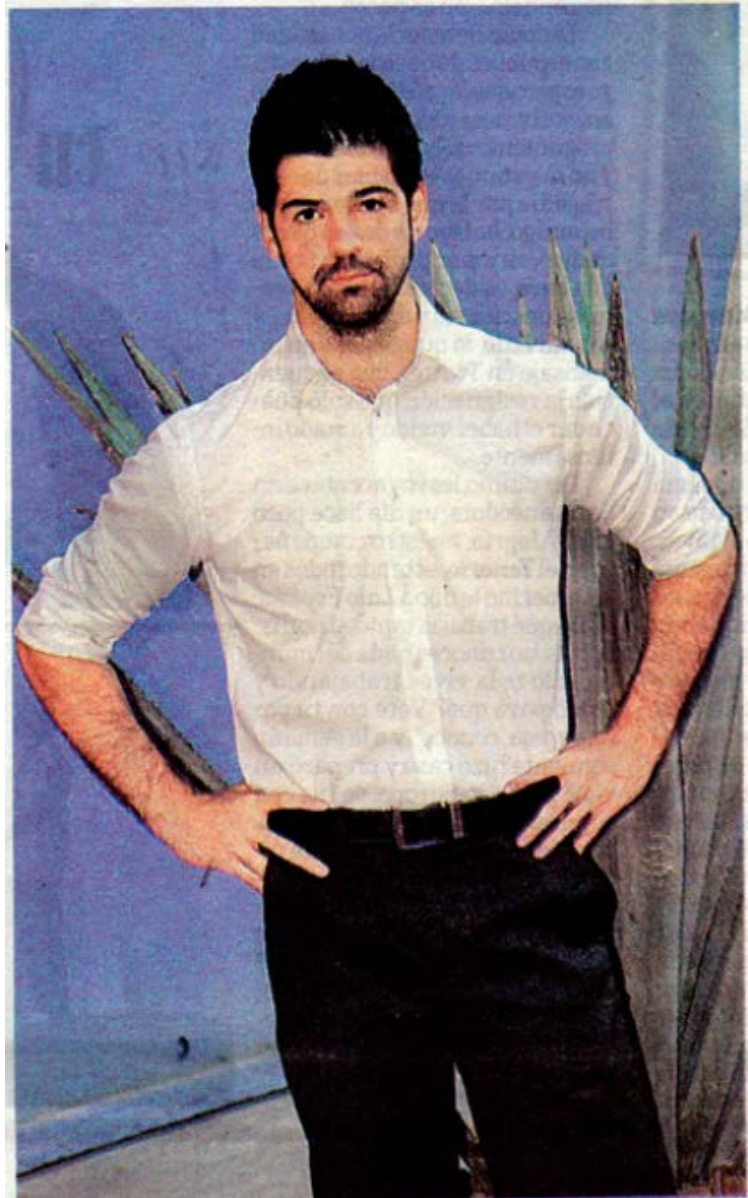

And although he said that he was thankful for the offer made by the production company Mapat for its new project called La mujer del vendaval, the Spaniard commented that he did not accept the offer. Nevertheless he said that they were on good terms for a future invitation. "The truth is that the project was very interesting, but I had previous commitments and it was not possible. The production company made a good impression on me, I think they are very professional, and perhaps in the future we can do something, who knows? The door is always open, and Mapat's friendliness has more than won me over, at the moment it is not in my plans, but maybe in the future it could happen," he stated.

The actor said that in contrast to some of his acting colleagues, he was not interested in joining a certain TV company in Mexico, but rather he explained that what is really important to him is the project and the people with which he would have to work in this project, since he finds it significant that his coworkers show great human warmth.

Muñoz, who will probably remain only five more days in Mexico, revealed that Epigmenio Ibarra's production finished shooting early, although that was not the case with his character, since he has to travel to Europe for other work commitments. The actor, who is also a singer, announced that soon

* SPANISH IS A HOT COMMODITY

HE REFUSED TELEVISA

HE LEFT OPEN THE POSSIBILITY OF WORKING IN TELEVISIA

he will begin to shoot the film What About Love, in which he plays the leading role in the story. "It is a co-production, Spain and Germany, and my character is called Christian Santiago, and he falls in love with an American woman; it is a love story where a girl who wants to be a singer travels from Barcelona to Rumania, and meanwhile she falls in love with a Spaniard, and halfway through the script she does something unexpected, which turns it into a very well done thriller", he asserts.

HE IS ALREADY PLANNING TO RETURN

Miguel Ángel shared with us that in September or October he might come back to the Aztec country, as part of the promotion of the series Capadocia.