

Cotton sweater, shirt and pants all by Dior Homme.

What he is wearing

As always in the summer season, the tide brings in the sea-going theme. The difference is that, instead of limiting themselves to incorporate details, this time the designers immerse themselves completely: stripes, knots, buttons with anchors and a color pattern in blue, red and white.

Who he is

Since he became a teen idol thanks to the series UPA DANCE, Miguel Ángel Muñoz has combined projects in cinema, theater and television.

Why now

Together with Sharon Stone and José Coronado, he has finished filming the movie What About Love, a search for a way to overcome difficult moments; and he will soon debut in Al final todos mueren, a choral thriller about the end of the world, sponsored by Javier Fesser. Laughter is guaranteed.
