

A multitude. According to calculations the signing of autographs was attended by more than three thousand people.

BY JOVANA GUERRERO

The cast of the TV series Infames was not expecting such an enthusiastic reception from their fans at the signing of autographs that they offered at a shopping mall. Some of their followers endured the pouring rain from early in the morning to be the first to pass and have their picture taken with their favorite actors; the signs of their affection ranged from signs with flattering remarks, flowers, stuffed bears, and even braziers.

AMONG SHOUTS AND WHISTLES

The infames women Eréndira Ibarra, Lissete Morelos and Ximena Herrera, accompanied by the men from the cast of the story, among others Miguel Ángel Muñoz, created havoc on their arrival at the shopping mall, where more than three thousand persons were waiting for them.

"The truth is that we weren't expecting this reception; they told us that there are a lot of people, and that they are euphoric, shouting, we hope to be able to attend all of them. That is what we are here for, to get closer to our audience," commented Eréndira Ibarra before going out to the signing of autographs,

CONTENT WITH PRAISE FROM MEXICAN WOMEN

Miguel Ángel Muñoz, who plays José María, got involved with the audience, posed for pictures, blew kisses and said that he was very happy to see the show of affection from Mexican women since in a few days he would return to his native country Spain. "I am leaving with a good impression, since I have worked in a country where I have felt very welcome at all times."

The actors indulged their followers for roughly two and a half hours, and at the end of the event they had to leave under protection of a sizeable security force.

ACCESSIBLE. Miguel Ángel approaches Sonia, a survivor of the explosion in San Juanico, who lost her arms.