

Miguel Ángel Muñoz stars in the film What About Love

MUÑOZ WILL ACT IN THE MOVIES TOGETHER WITH STONE AND GARCÍA

> The Spaniard speeds up his work on Infames to be able to join the shooting of the movie

Fidel Orantes

He has been outside of his native Spain for more than a year, and he hasn't had a moment of rest; Although Miguel Ángel began as an actor at the age of 10 in his mother country, now fortune smiles more sweetly upon him; he is currently filming the movie What About Love, under the direction of Klaus Menzel.

The best part: he is the star of the movie and he will act together with Andy García and Sharon Stone, who play the parents of the girl whom he falls in love with in the story.

"It is very exciting to be able to share a project with two people whom you admire. I have seen a lot of their movies. I love them and I am very excited about them as actors", said Muñoz in the telephone interview from Romania, one of the sites for the feature film, although there will also be scenes in Barcelona.

However, Miguel Ángel native of Madrid, whose work in cinema in Spain includes the movies: Desde que Amanece, Apetece and The Borgia, has not yet had the opportunity to work with Stone and García. It will be a couple weeks from now when his idols will join the shooting.

He misses Mexico

He spent only 10 months in Mexico, but Miguel Ángel Muñoz was so pleased with the work that he did here and with the audience that he is already looking for an excuse to return.

"With Argos I have the doors open, and they do with me as well, because they treated me very well. I hope that we will work together again, and I think that it is certain."

"I hope to return soon and continue my career here," said the actor in an interview.

He feels so Mexican that during his stay in Romania, he already misses the spicy food and even the traffic.

> The actor is in Romania filming scenes from the movie, which will also have locations in Barcelona.

In What About Love, Muñoz plays a young director who falls in love with an American girl (Marielle Jaffe), but, due to the twists and turns of fortune, they move from the Romantic plot to suspense and intrigue.

"It is a love story, which in the middle of the script takes a big turn and becomes a very interesting thriller," said the 29-year old actor,

Apparently, having the main role in the movie was already his fate, since, even though the making of the film was delayed for a year, in the end the shooting began two weeks ago, and they plan to finish it in October.

"The actress who was going to start as my co-worker could not do it for different professional reasons and since it had to be done in Summer, the dates were considered and it was proposed," he told us.

More than a misfortune, this space of time was a gain for the actor, who was chosen to join the third season of Capadocia and afterwards, Infames, a series that is shot in México.

It was the latter that had to be sped up to meet the commitment of shooting What About Love, which meant double the work before leaving the country.

"The last month and a half were really hard work for my character, because the writers wrote my whole plot line so that I could leave one month earlier than my co-workers," he stated in the interview.

Although he does not complain of burn-out, rather he repeats how lucky he is to be able to live his passion

THIS IS WHAT HE SAID

"I am lucky, I can't complain, I haven't had any rest for a number of years, and I have been working outside of Spain for more than a year for different reasons."

Miguel Ángel Muñoz Sharon Stone and Andy García

